LB15027	108	17.8	2.8	15.7	99.7

LB15010 is out of our fine syndicate. He has a constitution, structure and wool quality to breed dual purpose, fine wool sheep, which will thrive in high rainfall and cold condition areas.

B15099 is out of the special medium syndicate. A well nourished quality medium wool ram with a well put together frame. An exceptionally productive and supple skin. A well balanced sire.

LB15027 is bred from our fine syndicate. This ram is a unique stud sire with heavy fine quality wool and a constitution to increase production of wool and meat. A robust, deep and square bodied sire, that fattens easily.

LB15002 is ET bred out of a One Oak No 2 ewe. This ram has outstanding quality wool and a constitution that will handle any environment.

LB15004 is by OOP sire B13014. He is ET bred out of a One Oak No2 ewe. A large famed sire with a rich deep crimping, elite style wool. With a bright well nourished wool, he was one of the heavier cutting rams of his drop.

W12215	123	19.1	2.9	15.2	99.9
W12216	132	19.0	2.8	14.7	99.8
W12008	116	18.4	2.8	15.2	99.8

W12215 (twin) by GP is ET bred out of a Collinsville Majestic, One Oak cross ewe. This is a sire with a long line of ET breeding on the mother's side. A well balanced sire with a very safe and high quality, fine medium wool and productive skin.

W12216 (twin) is by GP and is a twin with W12215. He is bred for easy production of quality wool and meat. With extra length of staple all over, a heavy quality wool and the right nourishment, he is a type of ram that will have an impact.

W12008 (twin) is by GP from the same ET flush as W15 and W16. He was also born a twin, due to the mother giving 30 viable embryos, so that 2 embryos were placed in each recipient ewe. An uncomplicated long, soft and safe wool sheep with quality breeding. W8 is a very good commercial ram.

One Oak Poll Stud Sires

Tag	B/W Kg	Mic	SD	CV	CF
BR15006	110	19.6	3.5	17.9	99.3
BR14008	132	20.1	3.0	14.9	99.4

BR15006 (left) one yr old, is out of the special syndicate ewes and is a big, well balanced medium wool sire, bred to handle all conditions. His constitution, long square body and straight forward medium wool was obvious from a young age. He is unmulsed and uncomplicated, yet still one of the heaviest cutting of his drop.

BR14008, 2 yr old, is AI bred out of the top One Oak special stud ewes. This ram has a quality build and wool. A superior wool sire with heavy wool and body. Possibly the best sire One Oak Poll has bred. His sire, B12014, has consistently bred this type.

Dubbo Sale Result

B13049 won Reserve Champion Sale Ram at the Rabobank Dubbo Ram Sale in 2015. He later sold for $6000 to Ashley and Melody Wilson from Yass. With a micron of 18.3, this ram weighed 132 kilograms.
